Very sincere thanks to the folk who have sent me material and a general invitation to anyone who can help to fill in ancestry gaps - especially dates. I will be pleased to update my records and publish revisions in due course - giving credit to sources.

Jennifer Bain for welcoming me at Home Farm Nether Kinmundy in 2011 my finally having found it. Jennifer too has been researching the past ownership and tenancy of the Farm and gave me census information.

Laura Bozzay (or, more precisely "cousin" Laura, x times removed!) who in 2011 sent me her extensive database.

Sylvia Jobson - a several times removed cousin who has provided much information about the Muirden side of the family. I discovered my Godmother, Katie Muirden, was Sylvia's aunt!

Joan Batten in New Zealand (another x times removed cousin) who filled in Muirden detail about the family's time in Australia - there is still a Muirden College in Adelaide (the city where my grandmother was born).

Christine (Buckley) Milling in Australia who has researched the Buckley line - James Buckley (born 1821) is our great, great grandfather.

Marion Dunn whose 3xgreat grandfather (Alexander) is brother of my 2xgreat grandfather (James). My connection with Marion goes back to James (born 1781) - over 240 years ago.

Carol Cowan whose great grandmother (Isabella) is a sister of my grandfather (George) and whose mother, Joan, met me in my Grandma Penny's Aberdeen flat in the 1950s. See page 6 on at James \(1837 to 1828\)

Bill Cheyne who has made a prospective Laing family connection for me.

Information in the 2000 book - "Longside- a Parish and Its People" - especially about Lady Kinmundy around 1745 on page 73.

Floer's 'O' Scotland for the ease of access to their material.

A booklet version of the content in this website has been sent to my immediate family and to Peterhead library, Fraserburgh library, Mintlaw library, Aberdeen Museums Discovery Centre, Aberdeen & North East Scotland Family History Society and Family History Society of Buchan.

And finally, does anyone know who J Brown, Longside was? He presented my great grandfather James (1839 to 1928) with a medal at his annual ploughing match on 1 May 1870 (just over 150 years ago) having gained the first prize 7 times!
